Candidate Profile:

Persons applying for this position are invited to respond with a letter of interest which articulates the following:

- Member of the AMEZ Church preferred. Member of the African Methodist tradition acceptable.
- Commitment to the rigor and expectations without “a hint, intention, or word of decreasing standards of excellence to increase the crowd.”
- Committed and capable of preparing leaders for the challenges and evolution of theological education in the Church and the world.
- Ability to minister and articulate the theological context to the Church.
- Shows understanding and acceptance of preparing graduates who are first in the marketplace.
- Documentation of an ability to gather and engage public discourse.
- Documented success in attracting donors to ensure financial viability for the Seminary.
- Understanding that failure is not an option.

The Curriculum Vitae must be attached to the Letter of Interest or Intent to Apply.

OUR MISSION:

Hood Theological Seminary prepares women and men for bold and creative leadership for the Christian church for a diverse world.

OUR VISION:

Our vision is to be the seminary of choice for persons who desire to reflect the Kingdom of God in the cutting-edge study of scripture and theology, in relationships of equality and diversity, and in actions which embrace racial reconciliation and economic justice.
